Sanyog Gupta Voyages

Luxury Destination Management Company

As we have evolved as a company, we have come to realise that our love lies not in booking tour packages, but in showcasing the unique experiences across the nations we serve. We realised that there are many secret corners of our world, rare moments, mysteries and stories.

Our company owned by a family, but run professionally. We have hierarchical systems which are driven by our core family values. We have come to understand we do not want to be the largest company globally. We have never tried to be the richest or the most influential. I say, we just want to be the bestest in what we do.

We are a family tradition for over three decades that have been highlighting this part of the planet. All over Indian sub-continent, we have grown to become a popular, valued and autonomous DMC providing the finest cultural experiences, personal immersions and natural wonders. We are here to build stories for our clients, tales of love, of wonderful excitement. We are proud of our past and its legacy.

MADHYA PRADESH

Meaning “central region” in native Hindi, Madhya Pradesh is an insular seat of India’s rich religious, artistic, and even prehistoric past. Ancient temples – featuring some of the world’s most breathtaking stone carvings – stand alongside other major historical sites sure to pique the interest of history buffs, photo enthusiasts, and general sightseers alike.

IT ALL STARTS WITH NAMASTE

Much of remote and uninhabited Madhya Pradesh, is covered in dense forest where tigers reside in the verdant National Parks, whose very grasslands, savannahs and forests inspired Kipling’s ‘Jungle Book’. This is the very heart of India.

It is liberally dotted with carved temples, stupas, forts and hilltop palaces. This large state is home to a trio Unesco World Heritage sites and over half of it’s covered in lush forest; Bandhavgarh and Kanha national parks, on the state’s eastern end, are noted Bengal tiger sanctuaries, so hop on a safari tour for a chance to spy big cats of the stripey variety. After an adrenaline-charged day in nature, meander around riverside town Maheshwar – this popular pilgrimage site is prime temple territory and is packed with places of worship, including the impressive Kaleshwara and Rajarajeshwara temples.

This archetypal Kipling country is teeming with wildlife, including the elusive Bengal Tiger, Leopard, wild boar, sloth bear, wild dog, monkey and many varieties of deer. The dramatic diversity of bird life is also prevalent here, from colourful peacocks and kingfishers to the mighty eagles and menacing vultures.

Jehan Numa Palace, Bhopal

For the believers of class, this is one of the most elegant luxury resorts in Madhya Pradesh, located in the capital city, Bhopal. Experience world-class luxuries with Nawabi hospitality in this 19th-century royal residence sitting atop Shamla Hill.

Every corner of Jehan Numa Palace boasts intact charm of the rich heritage of Bhopal with modern luxuries and amenities. The perfect hilltop location, away from the urban hubbub and the relaxing atmosphere of the resort makes it stand apart from other resorts in Madhya Pradesh.

The architectural brilliance of the palace is praiseworthy. Besides, this resort is also a great choice for the lovers of food.

Noor Us Sabah Palace, Bhopal

If you desire to make a palace your home for a couple of nights, Noor Us Sabah will meet your desires with its royal treatment and vintage charm. Built in the 1920s, this palace is spread over an area of 18 acres and overlooks the well-known Bhopal Lake.

The perfect location of this resort with flawless natural beauty all around it will add an emotion of serenity to your stay experience here. Apart from its beautiful intricate architecture, the wide range of amenities and world-class services of the resort make it one of the best resorts in Madhya Pradesh.

Taj Hotels

Taj, World's Strongest Hotel Brand*, is an iconic hospitality brand from the Indian Hotels Company Limited. The brand continues to be one of the most revered and loved hospitality brands with a legacy of over 116 years of impeccable service and genuine warmth.

Embodying the spirit of "Tajness", authentic original palaces, landmark hotels, idyllic resorts and natural safari lodges interpret the tradition of hospitality in a refreshingly modern way to create unique experiences and lifelong memories.

Taj Usha Kiran Palace - Gwalior
Taj Lakefront - Bhopal

Amar Mahal, Orchha

A stay at Amar Mahal is an opportunity to surround yourself with the rich cultural heritage of Madhya Pradesh. A popular choice among tourists, Amar Mahal is one of the topmost resorts in Madhya Pradesh owing to its outstanding facilities coupled with an authentic cultural experience.

Interesting paintings and architecture adorn the walls of this gorgeous palace resort. The panoramic views of the surrounding lush green hills and prominent historical monuments make this heritage resort an ideal stay option for a perfect holiday plan.

Neemrana's Deo Bagh, Gwalior

Nature and heritage come together to make Deo Bagh in Gwalior one of the most popular luxury resorts in Madhya Pradesh. Wearing an air of tranquility, this heritage resort is the best choice to spend some peaceful quality time at, leaving the bustle of urban life behind.

The construction of this historical premise, which now serves as a unique heritage resort, dates back to the 17th century. The old-fashioned architecture of this resort creates nostalgia. The resort features 15 lavish rooms and world-class luxuries with the culture and the history filling its aura.

Ahilya Fort, Maheshwar

Perched above Narmada River, this fort, built over 250 years ago by Queen Ahilya, is easily one of the best luxury resorts in Madhya Pradesh. The resort serves a perfect combination of the sophistication of the bygone era and tranquility.

Owing to its riverside setting, the fort offers many vantage points, and there are rooms with balconies where you can soothe your soul with awe-inspiring views of the sacred river. Whether it is about the amenities it offers or the food it serves, the resort hotel guarantees excellence.

Jhira Bagh Palace, Dhar

Located in the middle of lush greenery, this royal palace was built in 1865 by Maharaja Anand Rao Puar III. Apart from its tranquil aura that will refresh your mind, the brilliant architecture and interiors of this palace are fascinating.

The hospitality and excellent facilities of this resort make it hold a spot among the best heritage resorts in Madhya Pradesh. For a comfortable stay experience in its lavish rooms laced with modern amenities and luxuries of the earlier decades, Jhira Bagh Palace welcomes you with the treasure of its glorious history.

Raj Mahal, Orchha

Madhya Pradesh houses a wide range of heritage resorts to add grace to your vacations.

Surrounded by acres of thick vegetation, Raj Mahal is among the best luxury resorts in Madhya Pradesh, that has set a benchmark for other resorts to follow.

Fine Persian architecture, lush green gardens, lavish rooms, and top-notch hospitality – all these factors come together to make Raj Mahal the best place in Orchha to experience a perfect combination of cultural heritage and luxuries. Comfortable rooms adorned with old-style furniture at Raj Mahal ensure a delightful stay experience.

Denwa Backwater Escape, Satpura

Experience the rich natural heritage of Madhya Pradesh with a luxurious accommodation at Denwa Backwater Escape Resort. Offering mesmerizing river views, Denwa Backwater Escape is the best resort for an exquisite holiday experience.

Located by a dam built on Denwa River, this luxury resort provides top-notch facilities and world-class amenities coupled with an air of tranquility. The resort offers splendid views of Denwa River, Pachmarhi Hills and the lush green forests that will take you by awe. Most importantly, Satpura National Park is just a boat ride away from this resort.

The Lalit Temple View, Khajuraho

Located at a distance of 500 meters from the renowned Khajuraho Temples, The Lalit Temple View offers excellence in services, in rooms, in amenities, and in dining. Complete your holiday experience with a stay at this resort, built elegantly with a touch of historical architecture.

The Lalit Temple View offers a wide range of amenities to exalt your holiday fun. Scenic vistas of garden and temples can be enjoyed from its spacious and comfortable rooms and suites. Another great factor that makes this hotel stand apart is the sound and light show organized here every morning.

Radisson Blu, Khajuraho

Situated within five kilometers of the Civil Aerodrome Khajuraho airport (HJR), Radisson Jass Khajuraho is an ideal place to stay with family or friends while visiting area attractions like Raneh Waterfall. Our hotel lies less than two kilometers from many historic Hindu and Jain temples, including the Western Group of Temples, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Panna National Park, famous for its tigers and the impressive Pandav Falls, is less than an hour away.

After an exciting Jeep safari through the national park, schedule a pampering massage or a beauty treatment at our on-site Temple Spa. You can also sunbathe with your group by our scenic outdoor pool or take the kids to watch a puppet show in the recreation area.

Ken River Lodge, Panna NP

Soak in the jungle vibes of Panna National Park and the scenic vistas of Ken River at Ken River Lodge which easily finds a spot among the most popular Madhya Pradesh Resorts. Occupying 50 acres of the sprawling forest, this wildlife resort features 6 ethnic styled air-conditioned huts and 5 family cottages laced with modern facilities and comforts.

Besides, a 3000 sq. ft. restaurant overlooking the serene Ken River is a major factor behind the popularity of this resort. A stay at this resort, enveloped in wilderness, is the best way to quench your hunger for an authentic jungle fun.

Taj Pashan Garh, Panna NP

Located on the edge of the stunning Panna National Park, home to tigers, sloth bears, and over 200 species of birds, Pashan Garh provides the perfect escape for the nature enthusiast. A cluster of stone cottages perched on a hill overlooking Panna National Park, Pashan Garh is a luxurious safari lodge that offers guests magnificent views of the jungle.

Wake to the sound of birds singing in the lush jungle surrounding your cottage, and step out on your private terrace to watch the nearby water hole for wildlife. Take a dip in the infinity pool to cool off in the heat of the day.

Taj Mahua Kothi, Bandhavgarh

At India's Mahua Kothi, authentic cuisine, elegant accommodations, and stunning safaris make for an unforgettable experience. Nestled deep within India's beautiful Bandhavgarh National Park, The Mahua Kothi safari lodge seamlessly blends the rustic landscape with the comforts of home.

In addition to the main lodge, there are 12 separate, air-conditioned "kutiyas," or jungle huts, ensuring an intimate and comfortable stay for every guest. The communal areas are equally inviting: watch cooks prepare traditional meals in the open kitchen, dine on the roof-top patio, have a picnic under a Mahua butter tree, or star-gaze on the veranda at night.

Taj Banjaar Tola, Kanha NP

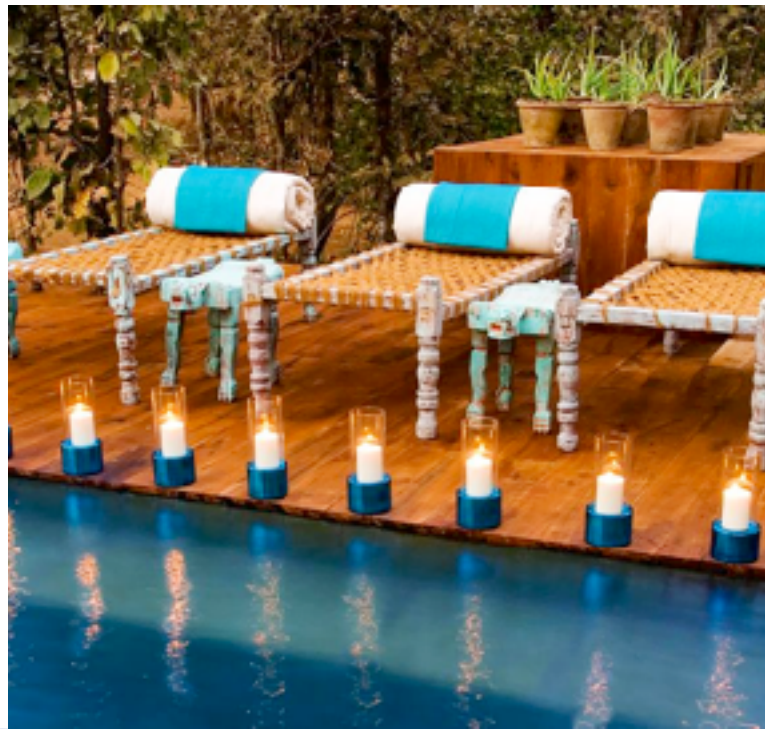

Banjaar Tola, India, is part luxury safari resort, part jungle paradise. Wake up in one of the river-side suites, then hop aboard an elephant for an early morning tiger safari.

You may feel like an 17th century explorer when you first arrive at Banjaar Tola. Exotic birds holler and sing in the jungle canopy overhead, while the green ribbon of the Banjaar River slips silently by the luxury camp. Like the remnants of a lost civilization, flowing walls and roofs peek out from behind trees and hilltops. But if history serves, explorers were rarely woken up each morning with fresh fruit juice and coffee delivered to their suite.

Taj Baghvan, Pench NP

Surrounded by the teak forests and jungle streams of Pench National Park, Baghvan offers days of adventure on the prowl for tigers, and nights of bliss in one of 12 luxurious suites.

The luxury safari resort of Baghvan is an exotic blend of luxury and adventure. Early mornings on the safari in search of leopards, wild dogs, and tigers blend into languid afternoons relaxing by the pool. And throughout it all, your bungalow offers a private retreat with an air-conditioned bedroom, private deck, and a covered. The calls of parakeets float above the forest as your 4x4 approaches Baghvan. The smell of cardamom and curry meets your nose as you arrive at the resort, where dinner is being prepared in the open kitchen.

Samode Sagari Lodge, Bandhavgarh NP

If Mowgli had a trust fund, he might have designed a hotel like Samode Safari Lodge: a flock of private villas set in wild Bandhavgarh National Park, where tigers roam and David Attenborough recently filmed Dynasties. Inspired by local villages, the hotel's wood-and-mud dwellings harmonise with their forest-and-prairie surroundings; there's also a relaxed, cosy lodge building, where mealtimes take place and a well-stocked library awaits. Winding pathways and bridges connect the huts, the pool and the main house; get deliberately lost in the wild gardens, where head-high grasses dance in the breeze.

Singinawa Jungle Lodge, Kanha

Singinawa is known for its top notch hospitality services. From your time of arrival till the time you leave, expect only exclusive services.

The bungalows and cottages are exquisitely designed to suit the unique requirements of its visitors; with large bedrooms, private verandas, en-suite bathrooms (double vanities & rain showers), mini bars and air conditioning.

Bask in the blue waters of the pool within the property as you watch the local birds singing hymns of nature.

Jamtara Wilderness Camp, Pench

The history of Jamtara Wilderness Camp is closely intertwined with the contemporary tiger conservation movement in India dating back to the 1960s when Kailash Sankhala raised an alarm about the shocking scale of tiger hunting that was driving this great cat to extinction. He was chosen by Shrimati Indira Gandhi, to head Project Tiger initiative in 1973, right after he had led the country's first Tiger census.

Jamtara Wilderness Camp is a 10 luxury tented camp in the heart of rural Pench. Surrounded by tall Arjuna Trees and an ancient Banyan rooted on a dry riverbed, each tent overlooks the forest which sets the perfect background to this jungle experience.

Sarai at Toria, Panna NP

Sarai at Toria is located on the western bank of the Ken river and is close to the UNESCO World Heritage Site Khajuraho and the Panna National Park. Khajuraho (30 minutes from Sarai at Toria) is home to several Hindu and Jain temples and were built when the Chandela dynasty ruled this region. The temples are adorned with intricately adorned statues that reflect the ideals of Hinduism and are a major attraction. The deciduous forest of Panna National Park is spread just over 540 square kilometres, home to a diverse wildlife, and the Madla entrance is just about 2 km from Sarai at Toria.

Kipling Camp, Kanha NP

KIPLING CAMP is the perfect destination for those who wish to relax in idyllic surrounds and explore the remote forests and villages of central India. Established in 1982 by a family of conservationists on the edge of Kanha National Park, it is one of the finest wildlife camps in India with attention given to every detail.

Over the years, the Camp has moved gently with the times, without spoiling its magical atmosphere.

Reni Pani Jungle Lodge, Satpura

Reni Pani Jungle Lodge is an exquisitely designed conservation and wildlife-focused lodge located close to the Satpura National Park, the largest tiger reserve in Madhya Pradesh. Our resort near Bhopal is just 150 km (a 3.5-hr drive) from the city, the ideal spot for those who love the canvas of green and blue, making it one of the best resorts near Pachmarhi.

This exquisitely designed conservation and wildlife-focused Satpura resort is defined by the high benchmarks in service and quality set by the Jehan Numa Group. Your personal butler takes care of your needs and will arrive at your cottage to escort you to dinner and guide you in the dark.

Kanha Earth Lodge, Kanha NP

Kanha Earth Lodge is spread in 16 acres of natural forest, tucked away in a small hamlet bordering Kanha's buffer zone.

Its unique location, 30 minutes from the Khatia/Kisli park gate, ensures that it is close enough for easy access to the park, but still far enough from the glut of hotels lining Kanha's tourist hub to offer guests a true wilderness experience.

The 12 luxury bungalows with large open verandahs have been inspired by Gond tribal architecture and offer environmentally sensitive, low-impact accommodation through ...

Kings Lodge, Bandhavgarh NP

Surrounded by Sal forested hills on all side; Kings Lodge features a swimming pool with a sundeck and meeting and banqueting space. Free Wi-Fi is available throughout the property.

Each cottage features a large balcony with views of the forest. The air-conditioned room comes with an electric kettle, desk and sofa. Private bathroom includes a bathtub, hairdryer, free toiletries and shower. Kings is located 10-minute drive from Bandhavgarh National Park while the Tala Bus Station is 1.9 mi away. The city of Umaria is located 21 mi away and the city of Katni is 59 mi away. The Jabalpur Airport is 118 mi away.

Divine Amarkantak

Situated at an altitude of 1000 m, Amarkantak is a well frequented Hindu pilgrimage center that is popularly known as "Teerthraj" - "the king of pilgrimages".

The Amarkantak region has a rich natural heritage. It is the meeting point of the Vindhya and the Satpura Ranges, with the Maikal Hills being the fulcrum. Three rivers - the holy Narmada, the Sone and the Johila - emerge here.

The forests surrounding Amarkantak have a rich variety of plants with medicinal properties, which make it extremely significant from an ecological point of view.

Royal Bandhavgarh

Bandhavgarh is a place of mythological and legendary significance. The ancient Bandhavgarh Fort is of great importance as it is believed to have been gifted by Lord Rama to his younger brother Lakshmana. "Bandhav" in English means brother and "Garh" means fort. Hence the name, Bandhavgarh. Bandhavgarh dates back to 2000 years ago and you will find several man made caves with inscriptions and rock paintings.

Bandhavgarh is also the land of tigers. This is the place to visit if you want to spot the big cat. India's top dwelling for tigers, Bandhavgarh National Park has the highest density of Royal Bengal tigers in the world. The sight of the majestic tiger, up close and personal, is said to trigger a sense of awe in you, of the kinds you would have only experienced in your childhood.

Breathtaking

It is a mesmerising experience to witness the marble rocks adjoining the graceful Narmada River in Bhedaghat, Jabalpur. These soaring white rocks, are known to magically change shapes as you sail along the river. Treat yourself with a boat ride on a moonlit night at the marble rocks when it shines like silver. The boatman regales you with a witty description based on his imagination and explains about vicinity in the most creative way.

The tranquil Narmada flows through high marble rocks and at a short distance, sited the remarkable spectacle of nature; Dhuandhar falls. The waterfall has been named so because of the smoky appearance of the water falling off the cliff with utmost force. The best time to visit the falls is during the monsoon when Dhuandhar lives up to its name and creates a mass of mist. The waterfall flows with such power that its roar is heard from a far distance. While these marvels of nature flaunt their beauty, the magnificent 10th-century Chaunsath Yogini Temple in the same town of Bhedaghat dedicated to the goddess Durga will take you back in time with its unmatched artistry.

Amazing Bhimbetka

Cave paintings dating back to approximately 30,000 years. Rock shelters that were home to humans, millennia ago. And a rich flora and fauna surrounding these, indeed, make Bhimbetka a gift to us from our earliest ancestors. The Bhimbetka Rock Shelter has the oldest-known rock art in India, as well as is one of the largest prehistoric complexes to be seen.

An archaeological treasure, Bhimbetka has around 243 rock shelters and have earned the honour of UNESCO World Heritage Site. The paintings found in the rock shelters here have a striking resemblance to the ones discovered in Kakadu National Park in Australia; to the cave paintings of Bushmen in Kalahari Desert and Upper Palaeolithic Lascaux cave paintings in France.

A walkthrough these ancient naturally carved rocks surrounded by dense forests of Bhimbetka will bring alive child-like wonder in you.

Revered Burhanpur

Founded in 1400 AD on the bank of the Tapti River, the historical city of Burhanpur was once the capital of the Mughal Kingdom. An important outpost of the Mughals, Burhanpur was known as the gateway to southern India for its strategic location.

Ruled by Shah Jahan for a very long period, it is one of the most beautiful symbols of Mughal architecture and Mughal grandeur.

The magnificent mosques, tombs and palaces give you a sense of what Mughal life at its peak was like. Burhanpur's glorious and rich past will leave you fascinated and engrossed, just like a child.

Begum's Bhopal

Steeped in rich history and an intriguing past, Bhopal, the capital city of Indian state of Madhya Pradesh, is a true paradise for historians, archaeologists, art & architecture patrons and off-course, curious travellers. Dotted with ancient monuments, historical palaces, religious shrines and numerous museums that speak out the tales of bygone times, the place tops the list of tourist destinations in Central India.

While needless to say, the city is a treasure trove of historical and archaeological sites, there are many recreational activities and things to do for even casual holiday seekers.

Beauty of Chanderi

In existence since the 11th century, Chanderi is blessed with scenic beauty in and around it.

While picturesque hills, lakes and forts sit surrounding it, the exquisite hand-woven Chanderi sarees adorn this historic town.

These sarees are adored around the globe for the artistry behind their creation. The elegance of this matchless intricate art of embellishing silk and cotton fabric with zari weaving resides in harmony with the towering forts and palaces. It is a beautiful contrast rare to be found anywhere else.

The town of Chanderi, with its regal radiance, will leave you spellbound, and often, feeling like the royalty, you used to playact as a child.

Palatial Datia

An astonishing confluence of Mughal and Rajput architecture, the 7 storeyed Datia Palace stands tall in the historic city of Datia. While its exterior is adorned with arches, chhatris and oriel windows, the Bundela paintings beautify the interior.

Mentioned as Daityavakra in Mahabharata, the city of Datia is blessed with history as well as divinity. Numerous temples, some even dating back to pre-historic times, give this city its second name - 'Laghu Vrindavan' or 'Small Vrindavan'. On the other hand, the Pitambara Peeth in Datia is a Shakti Peeth. A visit here will be an enlightening experience. The temple is always thronged by a large number of devotees, especially during Navratri. Some other temples to visit here are Bagulamukhi Devi temple, Dhumawati Mai and Vankhadeshwar temple.

The city of Datia might be nicknamed 'Small Vrindavan' but it holds stories, countless and ancient, that very few libraries can. Stories that take you back in time, and to the childhood moments of wonder.

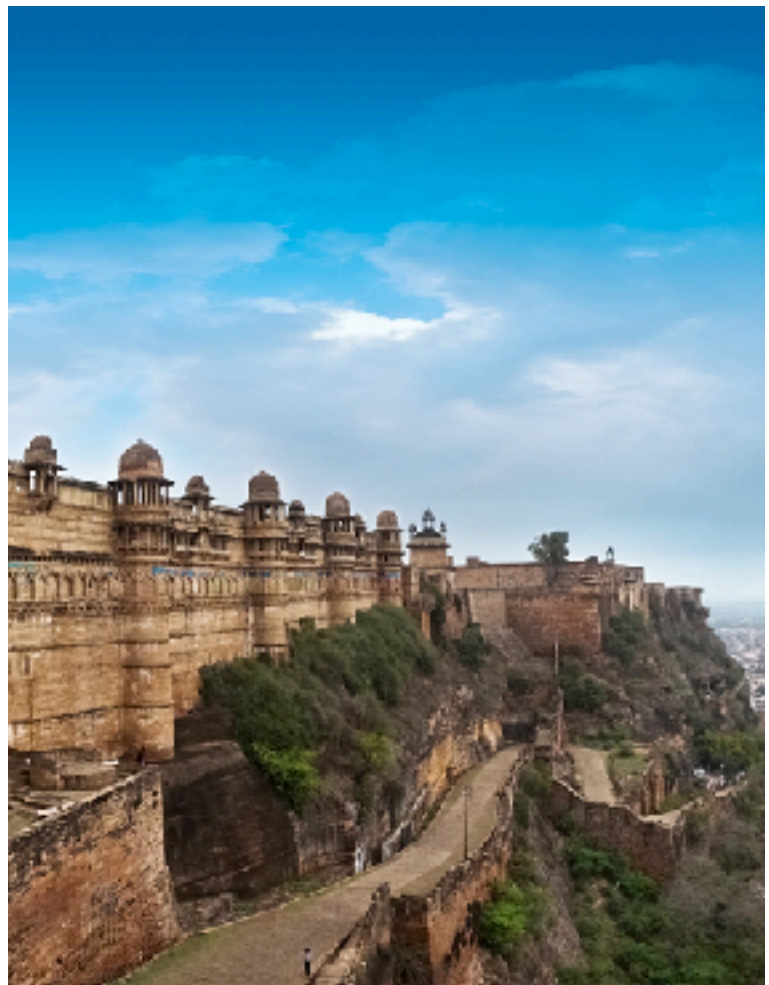

Melodic Gwalior

Gwalior is best known for its imposing hilltop fort, which was famously described as 'The pearl amongst fortresses in India'. Historically, the city has been the cradle of a number of dynasties that ruled it over the years. Their influence is clearly seen in the many regal structures that dominate the cityscape. In a sense, Gwalior continues to retain a medieval majesty.

Gwalior holds an unparalleled reputation in Sangeet, and has retained Indian traditions and the wealth of music intact over the years. The Gwalior Gharana is one of the oldest Khayal Gharanas and the one to which most classical Indian musicians can trace the origin of their style. Legendary musicians like Tansen and Baiju Bawara belonged to Gwalior.

Gwalior also has a rich history in sports, with the wizard of Hockey, Dhyan Chand, belonging to the city.

Yummy Indore

A trading hub between the Deccan and Delhi in the 16th century, the city of Indore was discovered by Rao Nandlal Chaudhary. Later, Rani Ahilya Bai Holkar, with her keen interest in education and planning, built the largest city in the state of Madhya Pradesh. Indore, being ranked as 'the cleanest city in India' for the fifth consecutive year has reserved its place in the first 20 cities to be developed as smart cities as well. The metropolitan yet traditional vibe of Indore attracts tourists for fabulous places to visit and fantastic food to taste.

Today, Indore has numerous places to visit from a spectacle of majestic palaces co-existing with commercial centers. The birth-land of The Indore Gharana of Hindustani Classical Music has a rich history of the architectural marvel from the Maratha era that allures the visitors. Indore is home to spectacular The Kanch Mandir, which is made entirely of glass and mirrors, luxurious Lal Bagh Palace and Royal Rajwada. Tourists can also visit the exotic natural wonders such as Gulawat Lotus Valley, Choral Ghat and Patalpani in the outskirts of the city.

Funfair of Jabalpur

When you are on a trip to this beautiful marble city, there are plenty of things to do and explore the points of interests to make the most out of your vacation here.

Right from experiencing the surreal beauty of marble rocks, to enjoying the natural beauty at Dhuandhar waterfalls or attend the auspicious aarti at Gwarighat in the evening, you will have get to spend a holiday worth remembering.

Jabalpur also embraces its travellers with historic points of interests. To name a few, you can visit the famous balancing rock, Rani Durgavati fort, Rani Durgavati museum etc. Don't forget to visit Kachnar city where around 76 feet tall Lord Shiva statue is a sight to behold.

Graceful Khajuraho

Khajuraho is one of the most popular tourist spots in Madhya Pradesh. It is famous for its ancient temples that depict some of the finest art in the world. Built between 950-1050 AD by the Chandela Dynasty, these temples depict various forms like meditation, spiritual teachings, kinship, wrestling, royalty and most significantly, erotic art. The temples consist of stunning displays of fine sculptures and exceptional architectural skill, making them one of the UNESCO World Heritage Sites in India. Based on their geographical location, the temples are categorised into three groups: Eastern, Western and Southern. Beautiful, intricate and expressive, the sculptures of the Khajuraho temples will leave you in awe and wonder.

Do plan a trip to Khajuraho around February when you will also be able to witness Khajuraho Dance Festival. This grand cultural extravaganza is a stunning blend of art and architecture. One gets to experience a wonderful symphony of mesmerizing classical dance performances being performed by renowned artists across the nation.

Magnificent Maheshwar

Situated on the banks of river Narmada, Maheshwar appeals to both, the pilgrim as well as the tourist in you. The town possesses a treasure trove of beautiful temples that calm the soul, alongside man-made creations that please the eyes.

A centre of handloom weaving since the 5th century, Maheshwar has been producing the exquisite Maheshwari sarees and fabric. The town also holds the distinction of being the capital of Rajmata Ahilya Devi Holkar's empire during the 18th century.

This historic town weaves spirituality and folklore with the beauty of nature and Maheshwari sarees, bringing alive child-like awe in you.

Magical Mandu

Mandu mesmerizes you for all the right reasons. It is indeed one magical destination mostly preferred to be visited during Monsoon. However when you set out on a journey to a destination as beautiful as Mandu, you tend to fall in love with its scenic beauty. This city is full of heritage sites like Rani Roopmati Pavilion, Hoshang Shah's tomb, Baz Bahadur Palace that makes it one of the popular tourist attractions in Madhya Pradesh.

Floating over its own reflection, the Jahaz Mahal in Mandu looks like a ship that's about to sail. However, for centuries this ship made of stone and mortar never did. Instead, it stood floating over the twin lakes, bearing a silent witness to Mandu's long, rich and varied history.

The city of Mandu is adorned with spell-binding Afghan architecture surrounded by baobab trees, native to Africa. The grand palaces are still alive with royal romance while the gateways (darwazas) speak of a history of imperial conquests.

Majestic Orchha

The historic town of Orchha, nestled on the banks of river Betwa, was founded in the 16th century by the Bundela Rajput Chief, Rudra Pratap.

Here, the river Betwa splits into seven channels, also called the Satdhara. Legend goes that this is in honour of the seven erstwhile Chiefs of Orchha.

The ancient town seems frozen in time, with its many monuments continuing to retain their original grandeur even to this day.

Here you will find some of the most fascinating temples and palaces that will help you realise a childhood fantasy - travstelling back in time!

Sacred Sanchi

The town of Sanchi is synonymous with Buddhist Stupas - hemispherical structures typically containing relics of the Buddha or his followers. The Stupas of Sanchi were constructed on the orders of Emperor Ashoka to preserve and spread the Buddhist philosophy.

Sanchi has been protecting these beautiful and sacred architectural wonders, just the way these wonders have been safeguarding ancient history and art of the Mauryan period.

The numerous stupas, temples, monasteries and an Ashokan pillar have been the focus of interest and awe for global audiences as well. In fact, UNESCO has given the status of 'World Heritage Site' to the Mahastupa.

A visit to Sanchi will bring alive the awe you felt as a child as you listened to the tales of Ashoka. There are several other hidden buddha sites situated within the radius of 30km of Sanchi that offers significant Buddha teachings.

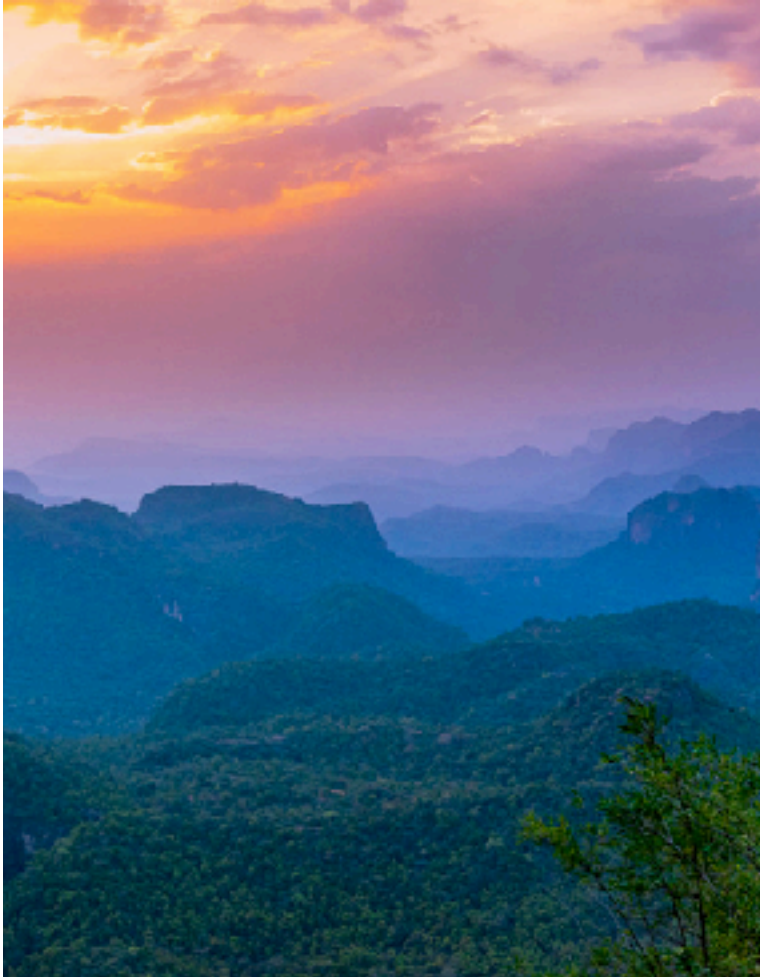

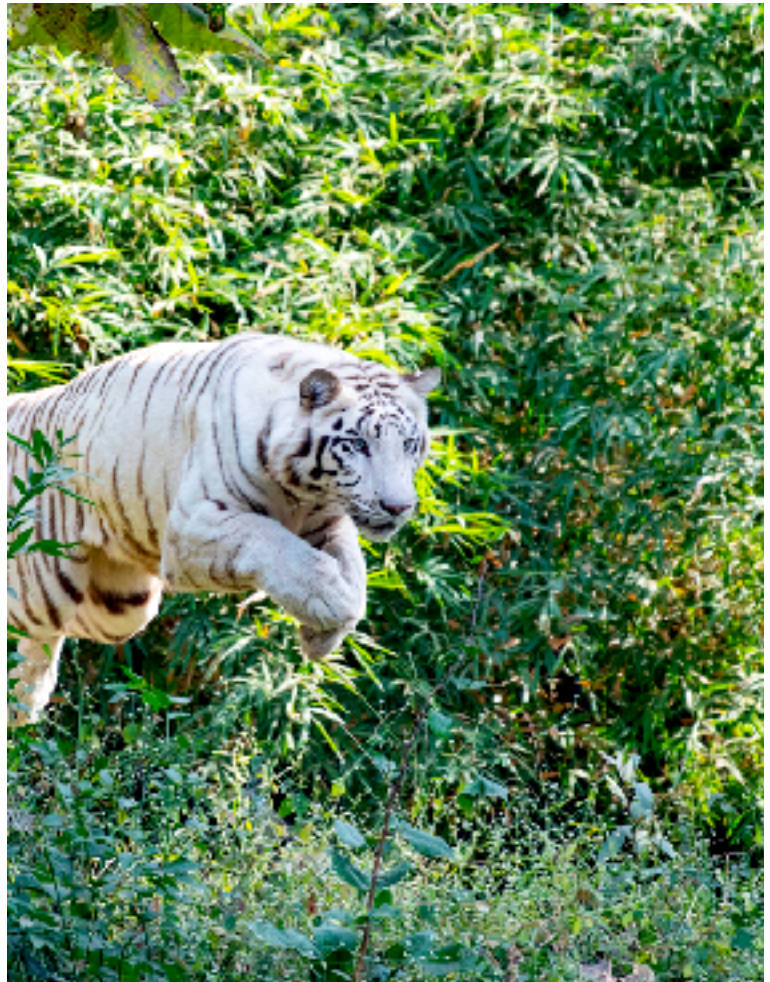

Enchanting Rewa

Blessed with natural beauty, Rewa, situated on the north-western side of Madhya Pradesh was home to Mohan - the world renowned white tiger. The lineage of the rare white tigers in India grew, thanks to the soothing climate and abundant greenery.

The town is surrounded by dizzyingly high yet beautiful waterfalls like Keoti, Purva and Bahuti to name a few. Along with these, Rewa has kept protected our glorious history in the form of ancient monuments and carvings, like the 35 ft. reclining Bhairav Baba statue.

The white tigers, centuries old Buddhist stupas and the serene nature, Rewa promises to offer a rare spectacle; one that takes you back to the thrilling moments of childhood.

Serene Pachmarhi

Situated at a mounting height, Pachmarhi, popularly known as 'Satpura ki Rani' (Queen of Satpura) sits beautifully amidst the Satpura range. This attractive town was snuggled in the hills and forests until it was discovered by Captain James Forsyth in 1857. It is one of the most popular destinations in Madhya Pradesh and is a treasure trove of rich history and nature's bounty. The 'Pandavas Caves' in the town is a popular attraction which has a fascinating tale. The legend has it that these caves were built by the Pandavas who lived here along with their wife Draupadi during their exile.

Another point of interest is the stone formed JataShankar cave that resembles the hundred-headed divine snake Seshnag. As per folklore, it is where Lord Shiva had supposed to have hidden from the Demon Bhasmasur. The rocks of this sacred cave look like the tangled hair of Lord Shiva, hence it is named Jata Shankar. From spiritual sites, gushing waterfalls to panoramic vantage points, Pachmarhi has something for everyone. Besides scenic beauty, you can enjoy adventure activities like jeep safari.

Enticing Alirajpur

In the magical land of Madhya Pradesh, Alirajpur lies in the Malwa district (western part of MP). With many tourist places, Alirajpur turns out to be a significant vacation destination for an art travel buff. Firstly, the district is famous for wood carvings which displays exquisite and beautiful craftsmanship. Since there is a significant population of the Bhils tribe in the region, it has also become the hub for Bhils for diverse kinds of trading and businesses. Bhagoria is one of the huge tribal festival celebrated by bhils and Bhilalas in Alirajpur and other regions of Madhya Pradesh.

The other appeal to visit the town is the well-known mango yard. Additionally, the 'Noor Jahan' an exceptionally uncommon assortment of mango of which few trees are surviving, are found in the region, specially Katthiwara village located approximately at a distance of one hour from Alirajpur. Alirajpur's topography is predominantly hilly and depends primarily on agricultural endeavors, especially mangoes. The agricultural trading yard in Alirajpur is the biggest when it comes to mango trading.

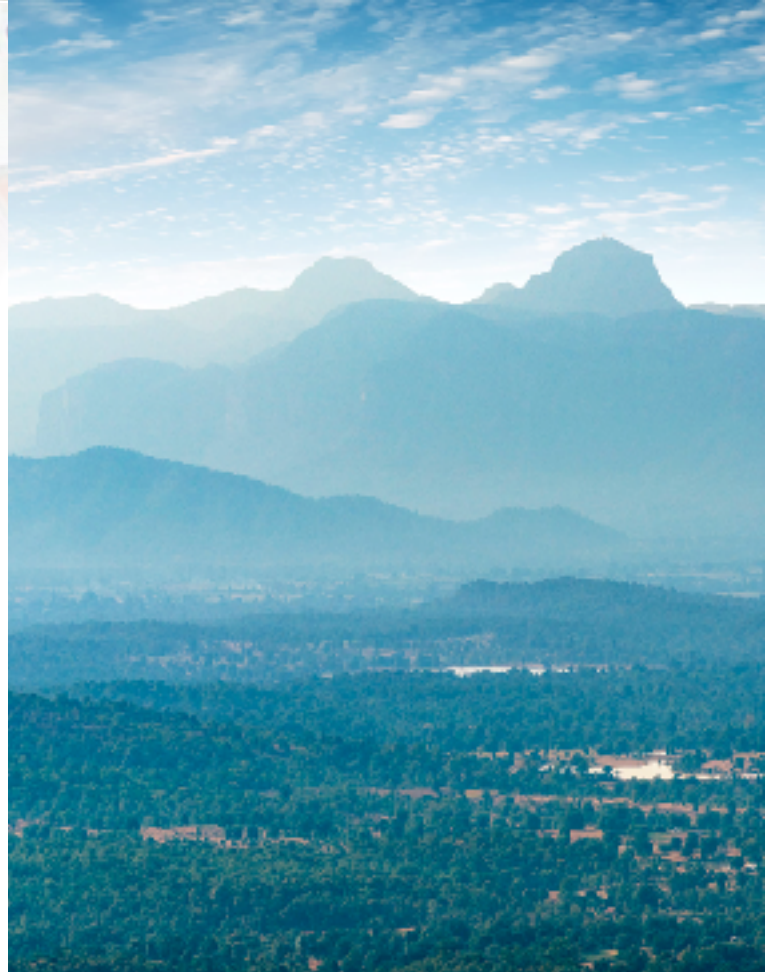

Pristine Tamia

One of the hidden treasures of Madhya Pradesh, Tamia is a picturesque forest destination that offers scenic and breath-taking views of dense forests and mountains.

Untouched and unexplored, Tamia is the perfect location to disconnect from the world and experience absolute tranquillity.

A few houses on the hill top offer panoramic views of the steep hills, vast greenery and deep valleys.

Inaccessible for a very long time, Tamia has stayed away from any form of commercialization, and makes for the perfect monsoon getaway. The experience is akin to visiting the forests depicted in your childhood books and cartoons!

Scenic Sailani Island

Situated on the bank of River Narmada and Omkareshwar Dam in Khandwa district, Sailani Island near Omkareshwar Jyotirlinga shrine offers a tranquil break to visitors with accommodations at the Sailani Island Resort. The place is spread over 5-acres of land and is surrounded by the holy Narmada water on three sides.

The secluded island is away from all the hustle and bustle of the city and is packed with natural beauty and water activities. Apart from spending some quality and peaceful time at the lavish resort, one can always try out exciting water-based recreational activities such as speed boating, skurfing, paddle boating and cruising available at the destination.

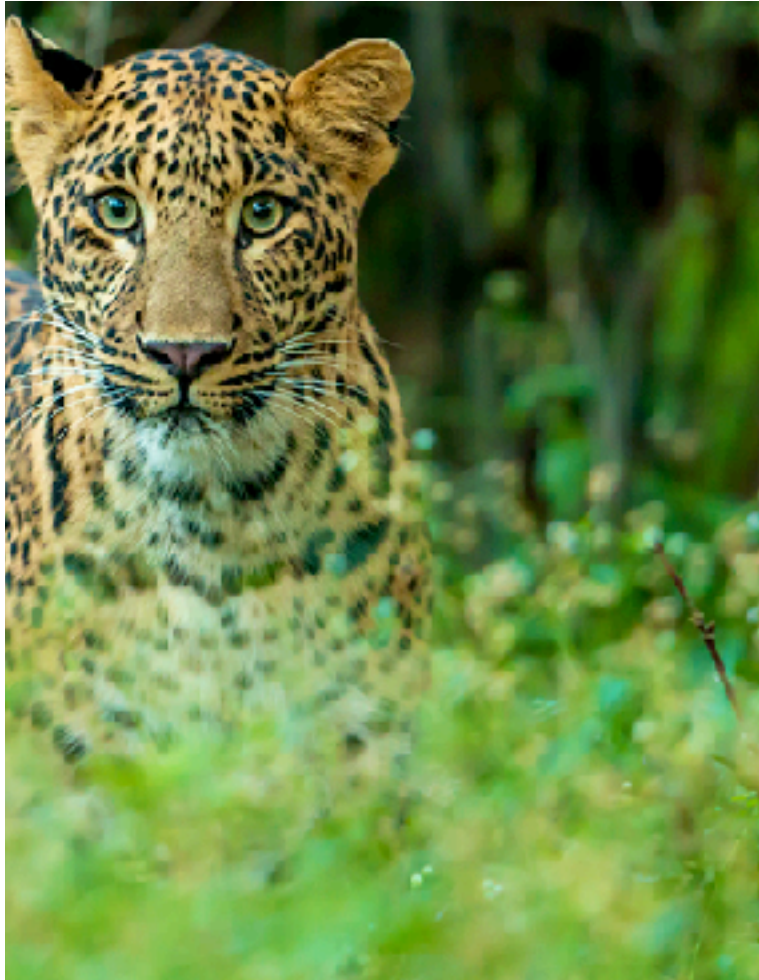

Developed on the banks of the Narmada, the atoll is the best choice to spend holidays in a soothing and rejuvenating environment! This is one of the most unique and incomparable water sports tourist destinations in Madhya Pradesh which provides a relaxing yet adventurous escape for vacationers.

Thrilling Hanuwantiya

Madhya Dweep is a group of islands in the Indira Sagar dam including Sailani islands (which is another adventure tourism destination and is under development) and Hanuwantiya which is by the bank of Indira Sagar dam. Along with abundant natural beauty, it offers a wide array of water sports during "Jal Mahostav".

Hanuwantiya also host India's only and largest water carnival, Jal Mahotsav, every year. This grand event is a paradise for adventure seekers, art enthusiasts, foodies and tired-of-the-urban-chaos people.

Dazzling Panna

While many of us are obsessed with tiger sightings, Panna National Park boasts of seven different species of vultures. This National Park is an ideal place to spot these in their natural habitat. You will also come across a variety of flora and fauna here.

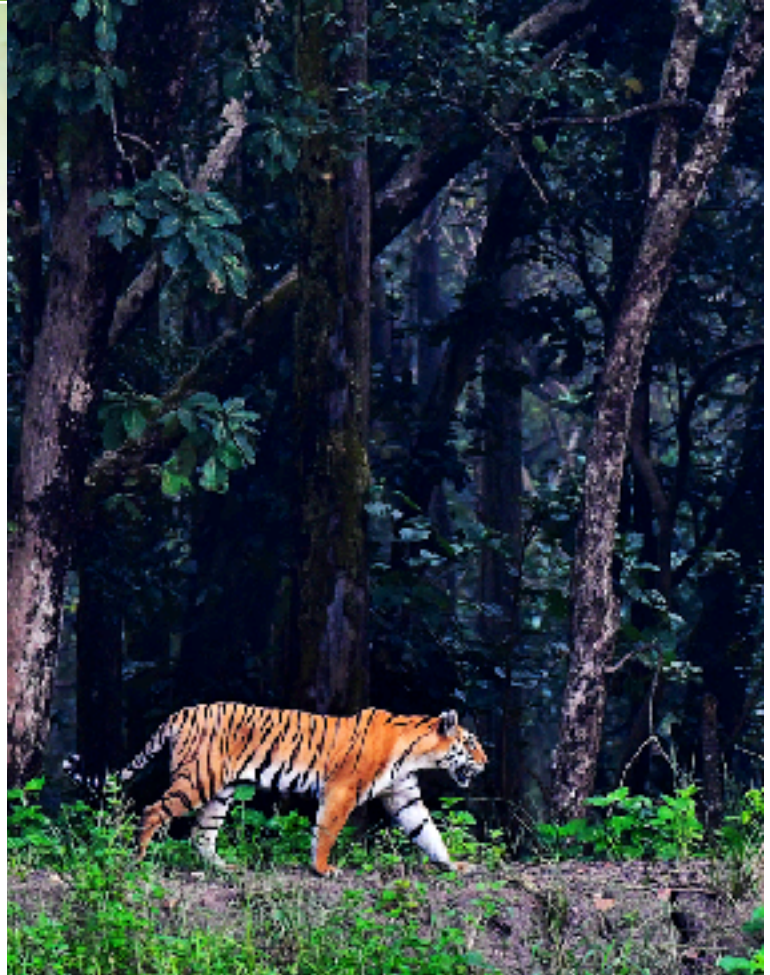

Panna has the amazing superpower to, both, calm you and thrill you! The royal past of this destination dates back to mid of 17th Century AD, when it became the capital of Maharaja Chhatrasal's kingdom.

Delightful Kanha

Spread across 940 sq.km, Kanha National Park is one of the largest parks in Madhya Pradesh where the majestic royal Bengal tigers are found in good numbers and you also get to spot Bison roaming freely in their natural habitat.

The Park is respected globally for saving the Barasingha from near extinction. No doubt, it is one of the best managed parks in Asia and a part of Project Tiger.

National Geographic's award-winning 'Land of the Tigers' was shot here, but the park is home to leopards, wild dogs, and Barasingha as well. A safari in Kanha will surely get you thrilled, the way you were on your first trip to the zoo, as a child.

Charming Tawa

The raw wilderness and absolute tranquillity of Tawa dam and Madai reserve forest attracts tourists in good numbers. Located in the Hoshangabad district of Madhya Pradesh, these are hot spots in monsoon. This place offers a scenic escape from the hustle and bustle of city life. It is set amidst lush greenery, and offers much scope for adventure.

The scenic beauty of Tawa dam and reservoir on the Tawa river is charismatic. Sunsets viewed from the dam are especially enchanting. Even more enchanting is the lake cruise, which takes you on a serene hour-long ride along the dreamy little islands dotting the reservoir and the panoramic hills of the Satpura to Churna.

Madai is a reserved forest and an integral part of the Satpura Biosphere Project. It is located at the entrance of the most exquisite and beautiful forests in India - Satpura. It delights you with its rich wildlife, sprawling meadows, unending backwaters and spell-binding views that leave you awestruck.

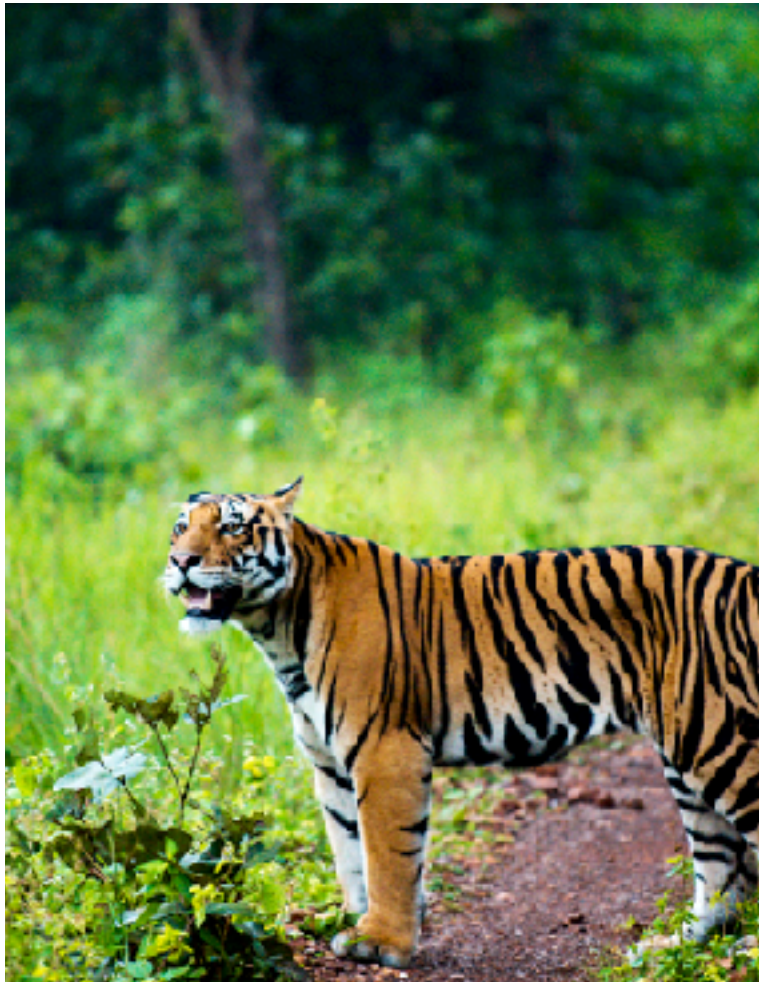

Tranquil Parsili

Away from all the hustle bustle, in the midst of scenic nature, lies the serene town of Parsili. The beautiful Banas river flowing alongside. One of the most stunning highlights of this place is the soft and moist sand bed which stretches across 4 km. Trekking barefoot on this natural carpet is an experience so calming, it will stay with you forever.

Home to many exotic and elusive species of birds, Parsili is a paradise for the bird lovers. Not only this, there is more for the wildlife enthusiasts, as the Sanjay-Dubri National Park is located at a distance of just 10 km from Parsili.

Parsili will take you closer to the beauty of nature, while taking you back to moments of child-like joy!

Untamed Pench

Tigers. Leopards. Jackals. And us humans. The Pench National Park, like it did in the iconic 'The Jungle Book', still brings humans in close contact with wildlife. Rudyard Kipling based Mowgli's adventures, and his battle with the furious Sher Khan, on this very place.

Located in the southern reaches of the Satpura Ranges, it is divided by river PENCH into nearly two equal parts. This magnificent expanse shelters over 285 resident and migratory birds.

Pench National Park, with its majestic tigers and several other animals and birds, will bring back the thrill you used to have, when watching Mowgli battle Sher Khan.

Ancient City Ujjain

Ujjain is one of those divine lands in Madhya Pradesh where you not just feel the peace but also sink in the divinity that calms your soul from within.

A major attraction here is Mahakaleshwar jyotirlinga. It is one of the 12 jyotirlingams, where Bhasma Aarti a daily ritual that you must attend. In order to attend the aarti, make sure to follow the dress code if you wish to go inside the sanctum and participate in Abhishek.

Other attractions to name a few are Harsiddhi temple, Kal Bhairav temple, Shri Chintaman Ganesh. At Kal Bhairav temple you can witness a unique tradition. The temple is dedicated to Kal Bhairav and the devotees offer liquor to the deity as Prashad.

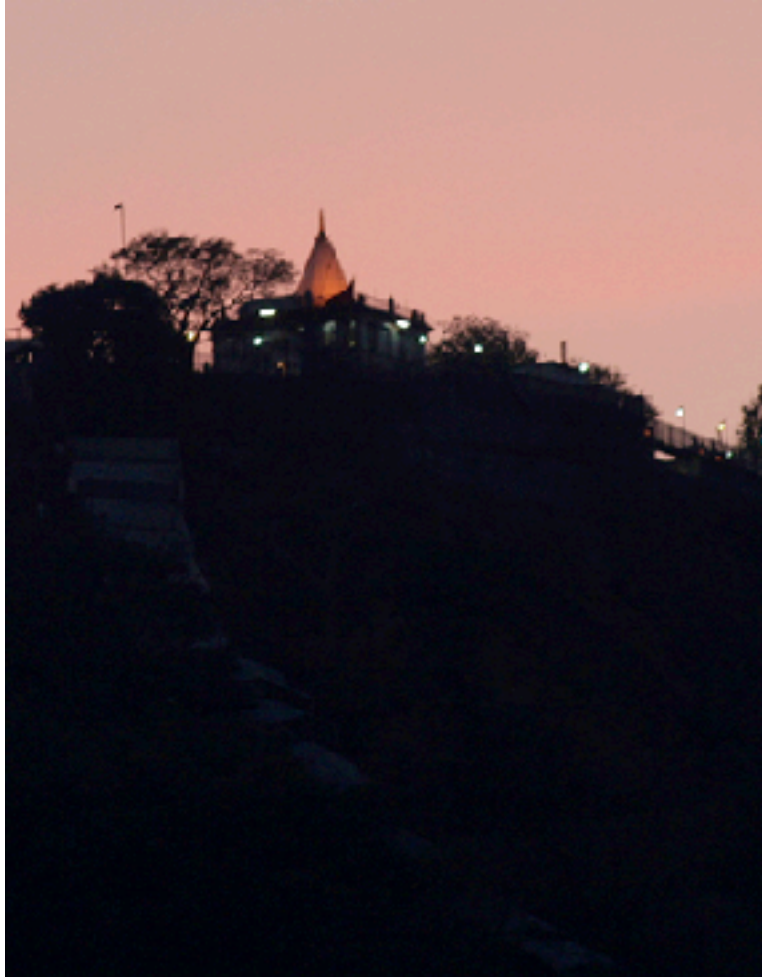

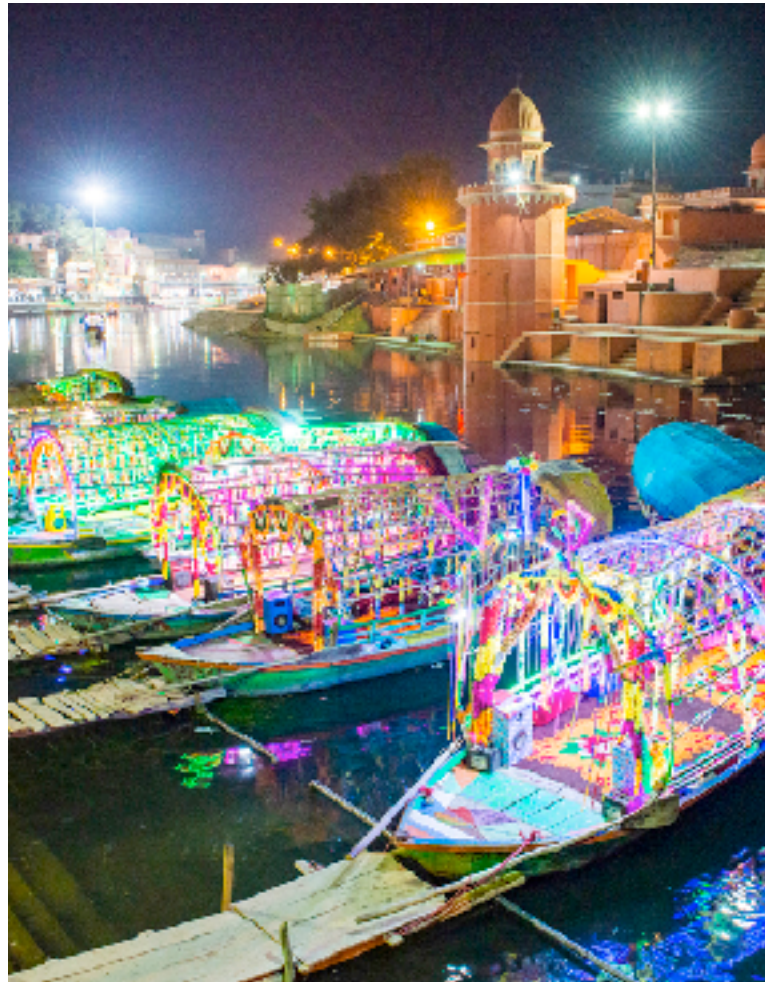

Devout Chitrakoot

Boasting a spiritual legacy that very few cities in India can match, Chitrakoot is known to be of great religious and mythological significance. It is in the deep forests of Chitrakoot that Lord Ram and Sita spent eleven of their fourteen years of exile.

A regular feature in Indian folklore, Chitrakoot dates back to the mythological times and was the meditation shrine of many legendary sages and is believed to be frequently visited by Gods and Goddesses. Known as the 'Place of Many Wonders', Chitrakoot nestles in the northern Vindhya range of mountains. The place has a unique sense of spiritual wonder that will take you back to your childhood fairy tales and fables.

In case you have planned a trip to Chitrakoot during Diwali then don't forget to witness 'Deepdaan festival' at Ram Ghat.

Goddesses Abode Maihar

After climbing 1063 steps, you will see the beautiful Maa Sharda Devi Temple, sitting atop the Trikoota hill in Maihar. Even today it is believed that the spirit of the legendary warrior Alha visits everyday to offer prayers at the temple. While the temple attracts thousands of devotees year on year, the town is also considered as one of the 51 Shakti Peeths of Goddess Parvati. The local women here contributes to the promotion of art and culture by making incense sticks from the flowers offered at Maa Sharda Devi temple.

What adds to this divinity is how Maihar got its name. The name means 'Necklace of Mother'. It is believed that when Lord Shiva was carrying Sati, her necklace fell down here. Along with its treasure of holiness, Maihar also holds the honour of producing some of the best Indian Classical musicians.

With this wide a range of offerings, Maihar will leave you amazed, like you used to be as a child.

Sublime Mandsaur

On the bank of river Shivna, sits the grand Pashupatinath Temple, in the holy and historic town of Mandsaur. The spiritual aura of the temple embraces the whole town. What also makes the town special is its treasure of archaeological sites.

Believed to be in existence since the time of Mahabharata, Mandsaur resulted from the merger of two villages - Marh and Saur (or Dasaur). It has been ruled by a lot of prominent rulers of ancient as well as recent history. It's famous for the 8 faced Pashupati Shiv . The main industry here is the slate pencil industry.

Rich in history, Mandsaur narrates tales that will fill you up with child-like awe.

Spiritual

It can only be termed as a blessing, by Lords and mother nature, that Omkareshwar, the sacred island, is shaped like Om - the holiest symbol of Hinduism. Not surprising then that this serene town is also one of the 12 Jyotirlinga shrines in India. Pilgrims in unimaginable numbers visit the shrine every year, seeking the blessings of Lord Shiva.

Omkareshwar is adorned with lofty hills, between which the river Narmada forms a serene pool. Above this pool runs a cantilever type bridge which further enhances the scenic beauty of this island.

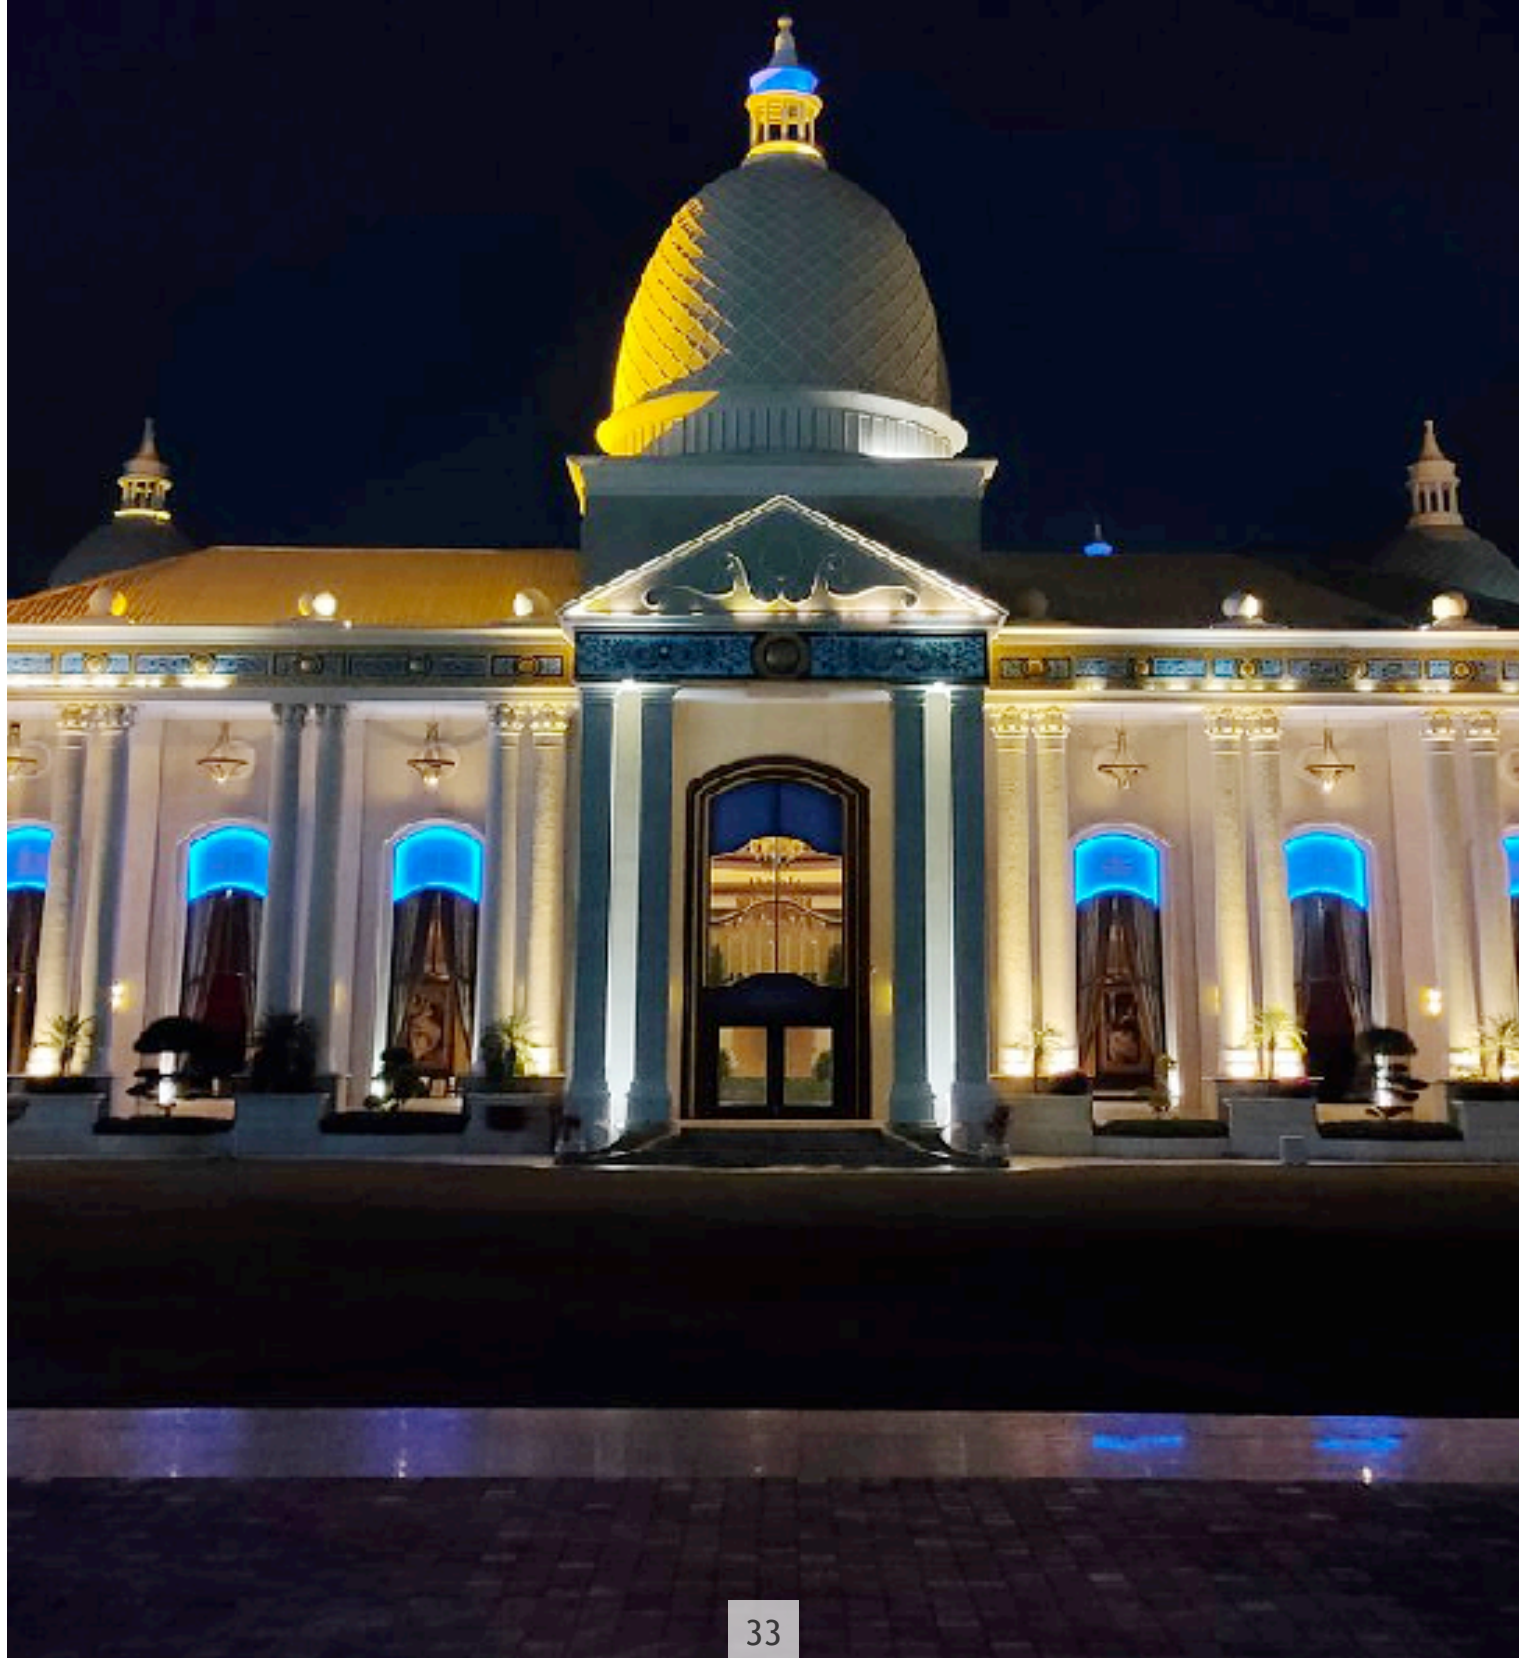

The beauty and divinity that reside in this town work like a magic spell, transporting you back to childhood moments of sheer wonder.

Also, the intricate works of Stone carvings are revealed through the temples and the monuments in Madhya Pradesh.

Moreover, Gwalior specializes in Jalli works (patterns), Jabalpur and Tikamgarh famous for statues of humans' structures and animals. These arts and crafts are well-maintained by the locals. Tourists specially visit this place to collect antiques and artifacts.

MUSEUMS

Located in the centre of the country, Madhya Pradesh is one of the largest states by area bordering Uttar Pradesh, Chhattisgarh, Maharashtra, Gujarat and Rajasthan. The state is both historically and archaeologically rich. The Museums in Madhya Pradesh constitute the major portion of tourist attractions as they exhibit the royal lifestyle of past rulers and some of the historic objects of the state.

These museums actually bring back the golden era of the Maurayas, Gupta, Mughals, Marathas and Britishers. Some of the renowned museums in Madhya Pradesh include the Central museum in Bhopal which stores some of the paintings, ceramic objects, ivory toys and wood carvings. The State Museum in Bhopal exhibits temple sculptures and 87 Jain Bronzes.

In Indore the Central museum shows the entire history of the state from pre-historic to modern era. Dedicated to Queen Durgawati, Rani Durgawati Museum in Jabalpur has fine collection of sculptures, inscriptions and historical objects. Moreover those who are interested in archaeology must visit the State Archaeological Museum in Gwalior which represent the collections of stone pillars, seals, metal images and Hindu and Jain Sculptures.

These Museums are well-maintained and taken care as they narrate the stories of bravery and loyalty of kings and queens. Therefore, the state is home to various museums which make it a paradise for history buffs.

HOLY PLACES

The ever-famed Khajuraho Group of Monuments is located in Madhya Pradesh. These temples represent Nagara style of architecture and have been listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Its erotic sculptures are another reason behind its popularity. Some of the priceless assets of Madhya Pradesh are its history, heritage and temples.

Other than Khajuraho, Orchha too is home to some of the most ancient and legendary temples of India. Chaturbhuj Temple of Orchha is dedicated to Lord Vishnu and was constructed by Bundela Rajputs. Ram Raja Temple is another prime attraction of Orchha; it has a deity of Lord Ram sitting in Padmasan (posture) with a sword.

Madhya Pradesh has two temples which are amongst the twelve jyotirlingas of Lord Shiva; Mahakaleshwar Jyotirlinga and Omkareshwar Jyotirlinga. Ghats of Chitrakoot and Temple at Narmada Kund too deserve a special mention when we are talking about holy places of Madhya Pradesh.

Besides temples, mosque like Taj-ul-Masjid emerged as a Mughal master-piece. The mosque was built by Bahadur Shah Zafar and it took several years to complete its construction; all the hardship put over the years resulted in a beautiful outcome. The state is home to plenty of holy shrines, all of which make it a paradise for the pilgrims and heritage lovers.

LAKE & GARDENS

Truly the heart of India- Madhya Pradesh offers the ideal tourist package. Translated as the central province, this state showcases, a quaint hill station, some of the most significant temples in India, major wildlife sanctuaries and reserve forests making it a treasure trove of unimaginable travel experiences. The lakes and gardens in Madhya Pradesh are no less alluring.

The rugged terrain of Madhya Pradesh cut across by the waters of the Narmada and populated by deciduous vegetation supports a large number of lakes and waterfalls, increasing the scenic beauty of the place manifold. The lakes and gardens in Madhya Pradesh in India are a combination of tamed wilderness and clever landscape architecture.

Madhya Pradesh before the formation of the state of Chhattisgarh, (which was carved out of Madhya Pradesh) was the largest state in India in terms of area. Even now however, it is one of the largest states in the country and shares its borders with Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan, Gujarat, Maharashtra and Chhattisgarh. The lakes and gardens in Madhya Pradesh are widely visited by tourists on a tour to Madhya Pradesh.

Madhya Pradesh is very well connected to the other cities in India. A good network of railways and road connects all parts of Madhya Pradesh seamlessly. However, some of the tourist destinations in Madhya Pradesh are quite far away from each other. It is therefore advisable to not to try to touch upon all places in one itinerary.

The geographical placement of Madhya Pradesh demands that you visit the state more than once if you want to fully explore the state. The Khajuraho temples, the marble rock at Jabalpur, the Bandhavgarh, Kanha and Panna National Parks, Manu, Panchmarhi are some of the most visited places in Madhya Pradesh.

MONUMENTS

Madhya Pradesh is one of the larger states situated in the heart of India. The State has an elaborate association with the glorious history of India, some of the relics of which are scattered throughout the state.

The monuments of the Madhya Pradesh include palaces, forts, Buddhist stupas, caves, tombs and reservoirs. These monuments are maintained by various governments as well as non governmental bodies like directorate of Archaeology, Archives and Museums and Archeological Survey of India.

Khajuraho Temples-these are group of Hindu and Jain temples and are declared as the world heritage site by UNESCO, Sanchi Stupas- one of the famous Buddhist shrines, well-known for its ancient art and architecture, Jal Vilas Palace- a European style Palace turned into a museum, Jahaz Mahal- a palace which appears like a ship floating on water and Hoshang Shah's Tomb- considered to be the India's first marble monument.

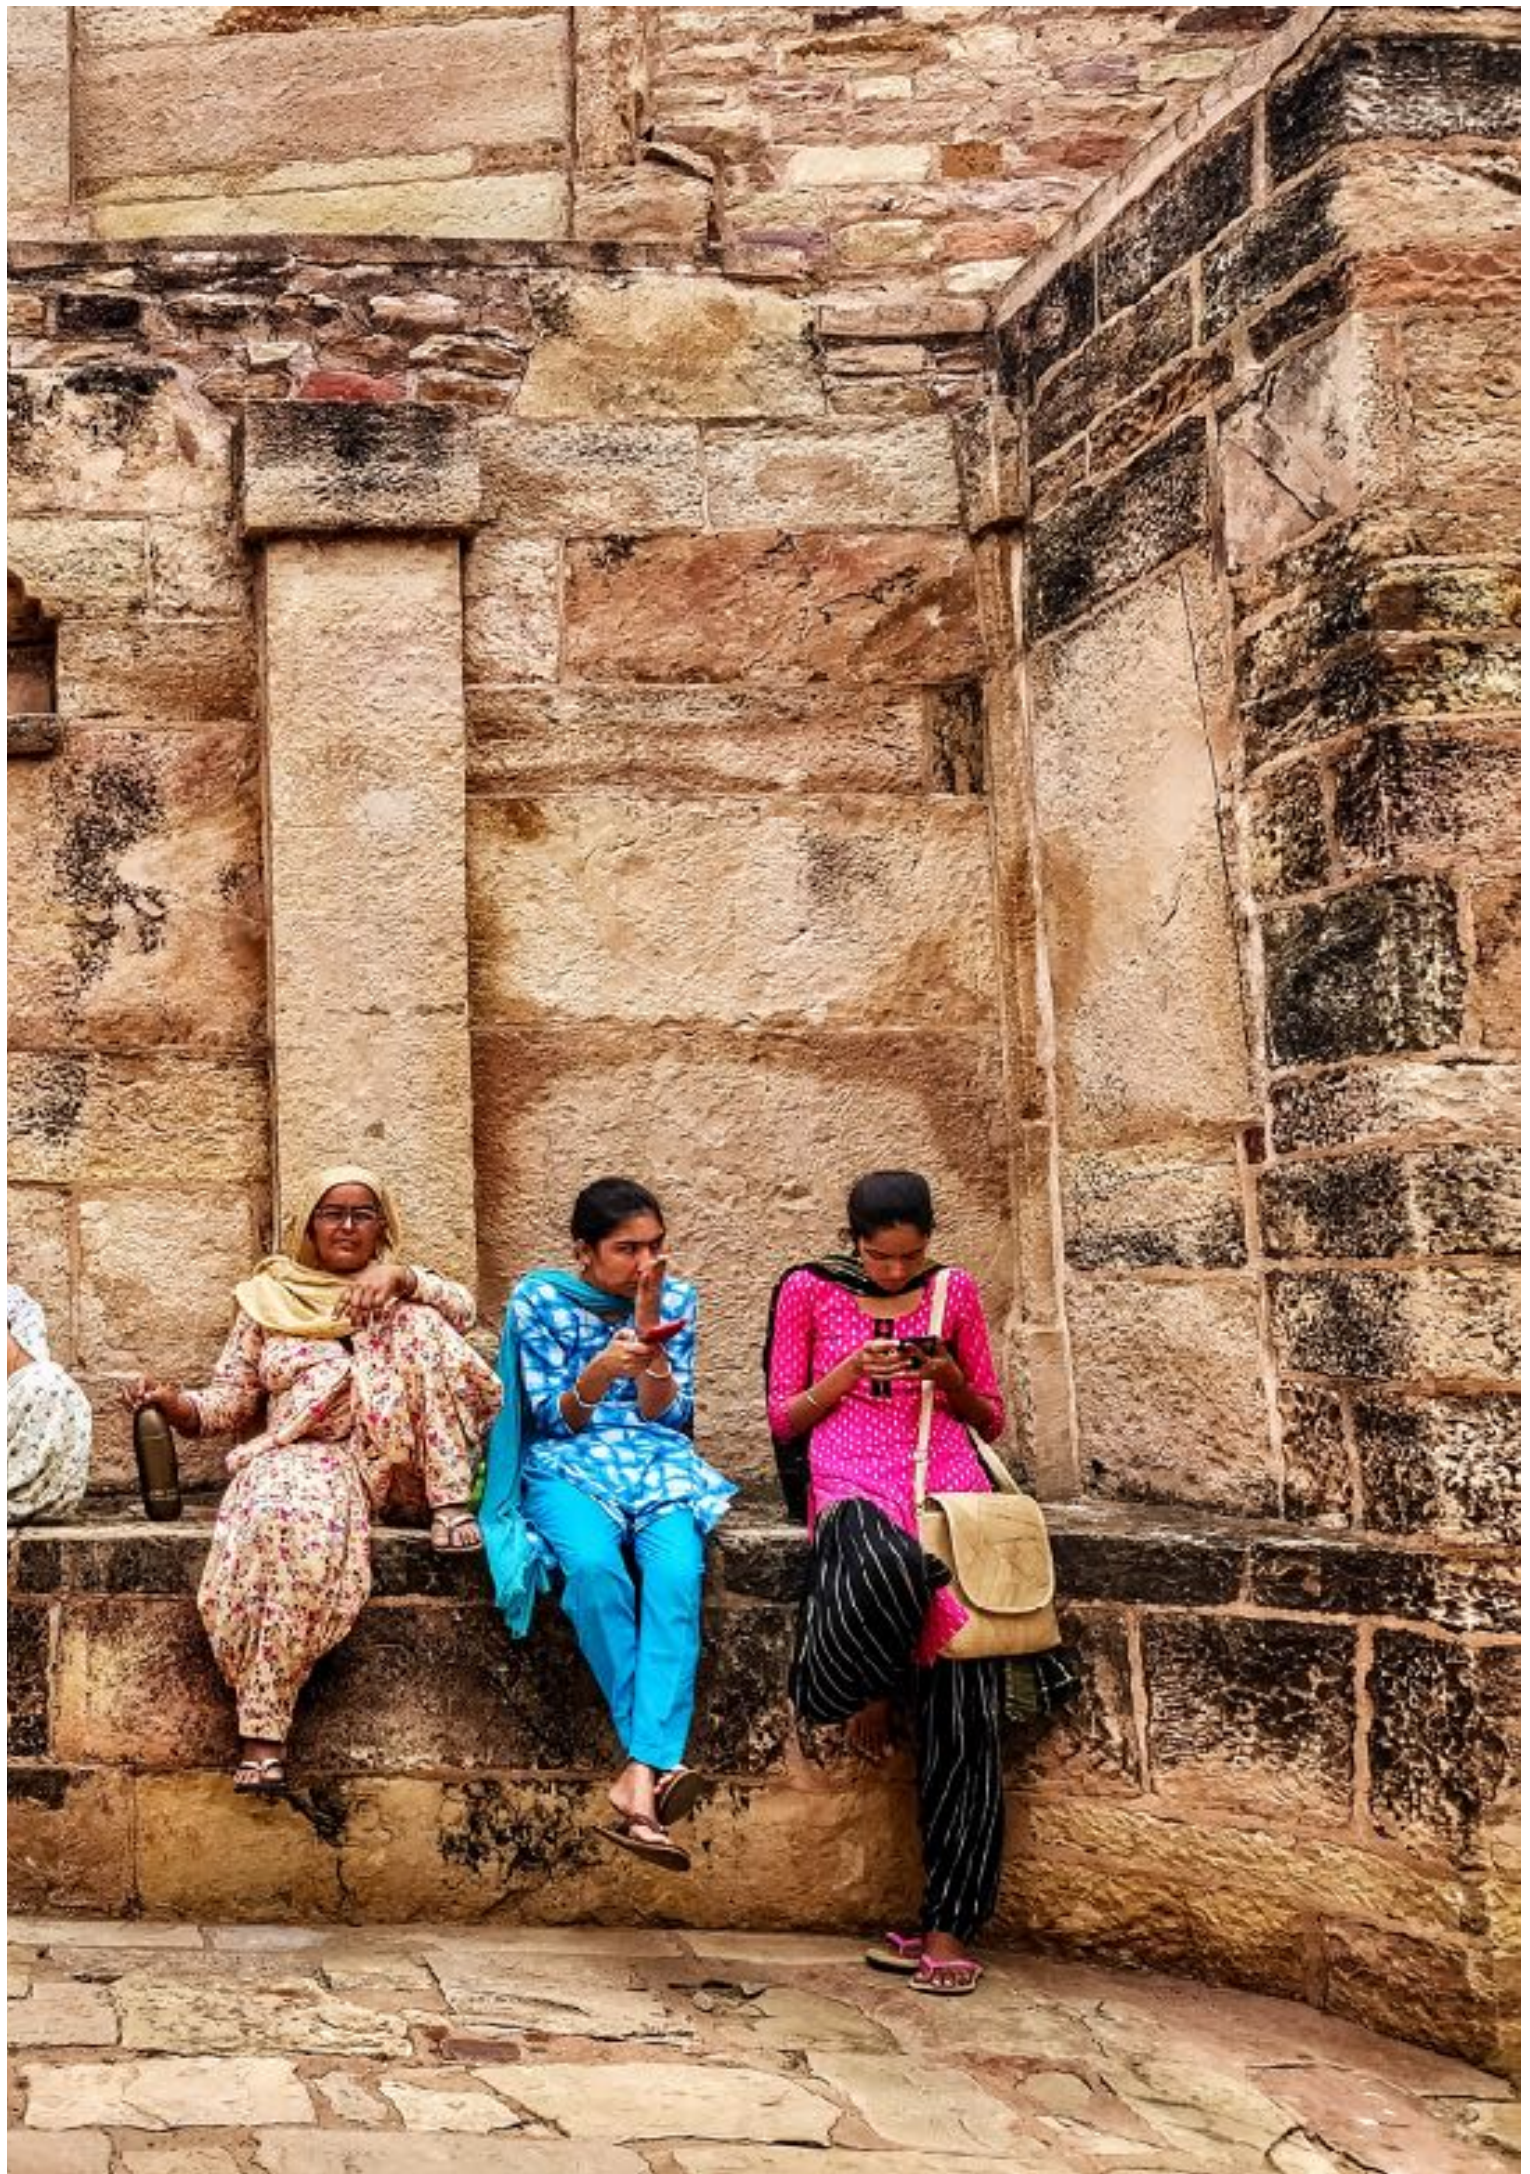

TRIBAL TOURISM

Madhya Pradesh is home to about 46 indigenous tribes that reside on the hilly slopes and forested valleys that are cradled along the rivers of Narmada and Godavari. The customs, traditions, rituals, and lifestyles of these communities are an intriguing part of Madhya Pradesh Tourism.

The treasure chest of indigenous art and culture of tribes such as Gond, Bhil, Sahariya, Korku, Baiga, Kol, Bhariya, etc, the Tribal Museum in Bhopal is the best place to catch a glimpse of tribal culture under one roof. Tourists from all over the world visit Madhya Pradesh to explore the fascinating tribal culture which poses a stark contrast to the fast-paced city life. The best time to visit Madhya Pradesh is from October till March when the climate remains cool.

ACTIVITIES

Heritage Tour to Orchha

The newly emerging tourist destination in Madhya Pradesh, Orchha is a perfect destination to learn about the rich history of Madhya Pradesh. Adorned with fort, temples and cenotaphs, Orchha is indeed the finest example of the exquisite Bundela art. The place was once boasted tile work and painted murals.

Yes, the paintings are in debilitating state but with the recent investment in Orchha by UNESCO, the place is likely to retain its royal look in near future. Situated on the bank of Betwa, Orchha is one of those places that can transport you to another world. The sky-kissing temple gopurams and the perfect silence at the cenotaphs can actually press the curiosity button in most of us.

River Rafting at

And while you are at, I mean in Orchha, here is one thing that you must try and that is river rafting. Making news ever since it has been initiated, river rafting in Orchha is one of the best family activities one can think of in this heritage capital.

Different grades of rapid of River Betwa can be accessed and depending upon your family's physical strength, you can choose the stretch that suits you best.

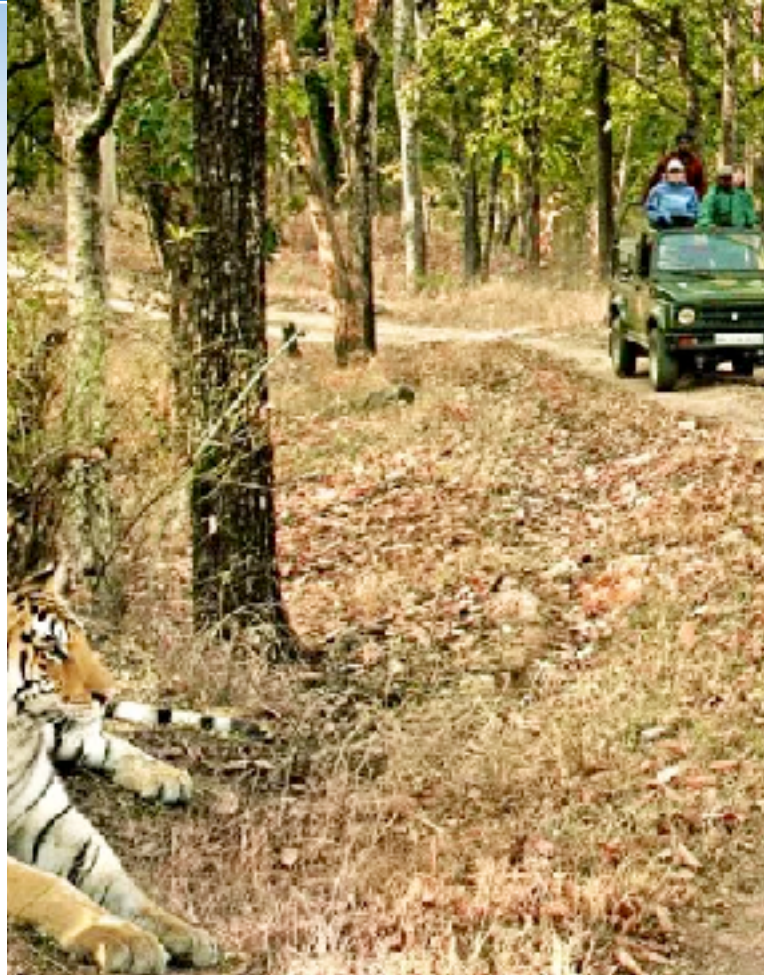

Hot-Air Ballooning in Pench National Park

Now, here is one activity that does not have any special requirements or skills. Hot air ballooning can be enjoyed by each family member (unless one or more have acrophobia).

Done in the clear and wide sky of Pench National Park and at a convenient altitude from where the least can view the rich variety of flora and fauna in the park, Hot air ballooning is definitely a must try in Madhya Pradesh.

Wildlife Jungle Safaris

Going to Madhya Pradesh and not trying wildlife safaris is like visiting a bakery and not trying one of its items. Madhya Pradesh and wildlife go hand in hand, thus missing a chance to witness it would be like an unforgivable sin. Especially for those taking their family on a holiday in Madhya Pradesh, a wild safari is a must. Since the state has several wildlife reserves, you can choose the best that suits you.

Binge Shopping At Famous Bazaars

Drenched in rich culture and art, Madhya Pradesh is a hub of Indian handicrafts and handloom. From delicate Zardozi sarees to exquisite Mulberry silk, beautiful Chanderi to finest Tussar Silk, intricate beadwork to exquisite Mandana and Pithora paintings, there are an array of vibrant things to buy from Madhya Pradesh. Whether you are looking for handlooms or well-crafted souvenirs, there are so many things that you can partake from the local bazaars in the towns of Madhya Pradesh.

Madhya Pradesh is also famous for Thewa jewellery which is about 400-year-old art. Leather toys, traditional batik prints, bamboo lathis are some of the signature crafts by the artisans of the state. Sarafa Bazaar and Chappan Dukaan in Indore are must-visit places if shopping is your agenda.

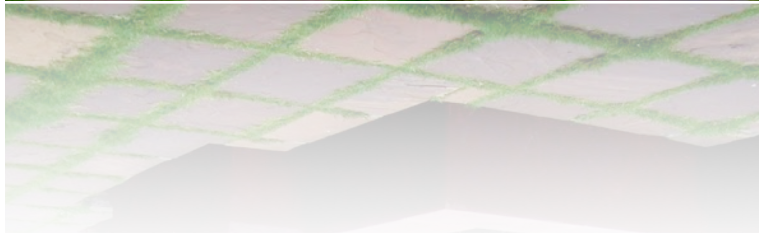

Savour Street Food in Indore

Yes, we all know about Indori Poha but trust me there is a lot more that comes from the streets of Indore. Indore's street food scene comes to life in the evenings, where one along with their family can enjoy mouth watering treats like the shikanji (made with sweetened milk, dry fruits, buttermilk), poha and jalebi, egg banjo, coconut patties, heeramani, chola burger and kulfi falooda.

Visit Bharat Bhawan in Bhopal

Yes, we know kids get bored at the venues of cultural dances and performances and I know lot adults who are of the same temperament. But Bharat Bhawan in Bhopal might be the right place to change your perspective about cultural shows. Set up in the early 80s, this cultural centre has a number of sights and sounds to keep one occupied for hours. The place overlooks the Upper Lake and its structure is itself an art masterpiece. It has a series of terraced gardens and meandering pavement that gives this place a very enigmatic feel, making it the ideal environment where art is not only performed and exhibited, but also created.

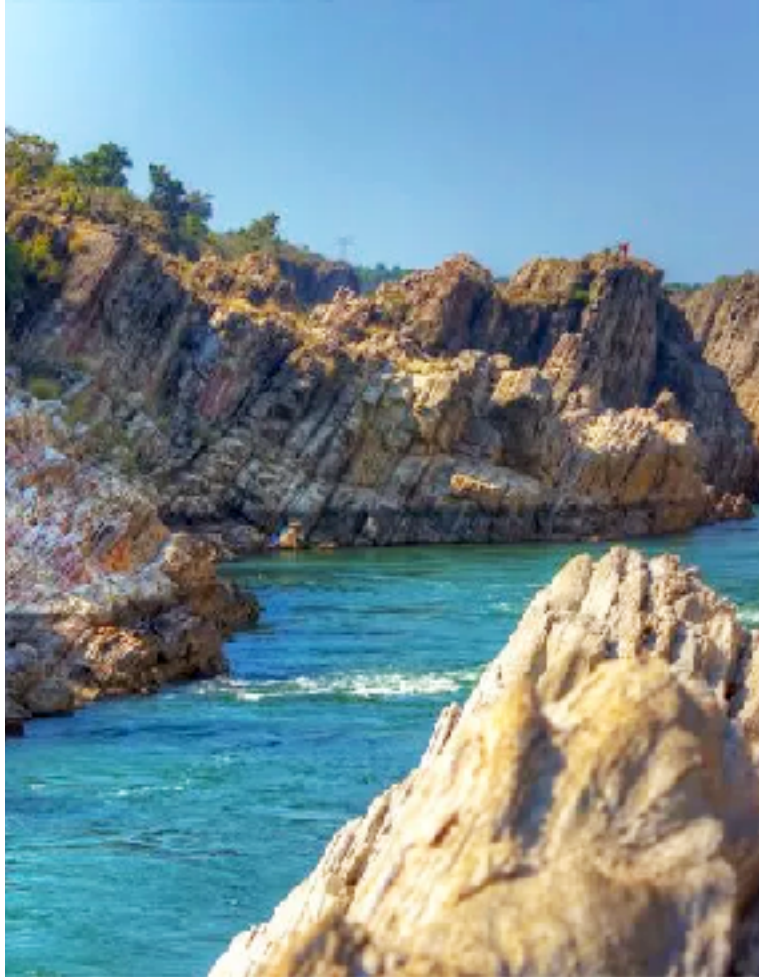

Witness Age Old Wall Paintings at

This is truly a place you would want to take your family too. Taking you somewhere around 30,000 years back in time, Bhimbetka promises an amazing experience. These gigantic rock shelters are believed to be 100000 years old and have wall paintings that are of horses, dancing people, people on hunt dating back to 30000 years from now. Bhimbetka can be a thrilling experience for each one in the family as this simple place has just too many stories to narrate.

Explore the Temple Groups in Khajuraho

Firstly no, not all temples in Khajuraho are about erotic figures and secondly, yes almost all temples in the Western Group have erotic figures, so taking your family to these temples is solely your decision. However, I insist that in order to widen the perspective of your family and kids, the temples at Khajuraho are ideal to bring that change. Also, these rock cut temples are some of the most majestic architecture pieces that one cannot help praising. Therefore, keeping in mind its importance, I insist on taking a family tour of Khajuraho temples.

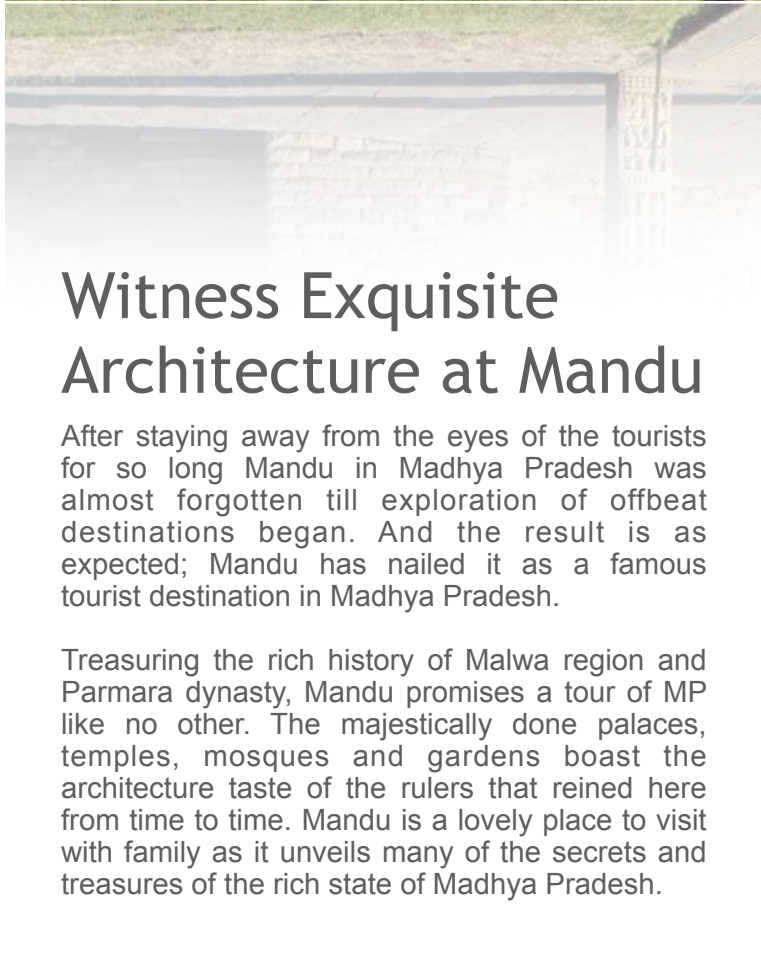

Sail Through the Marble Rocks in

You don't have to visit Antarctica to get the feeling of sailing through the snow white icebergs. In India or to be precise in Bhedaghat in Madhya Pradesh, you can get the same feel by sailing pass the Marble Rocks. Appearing to be white in colour, these rocks are simply a sight that everyone will cherish. Emerging from the water of Narmada River, these pre-historic time Marble Rocks are an absolute must see in Madhya Pradesh.

Perform Circumambulation at Sanchi Stupa

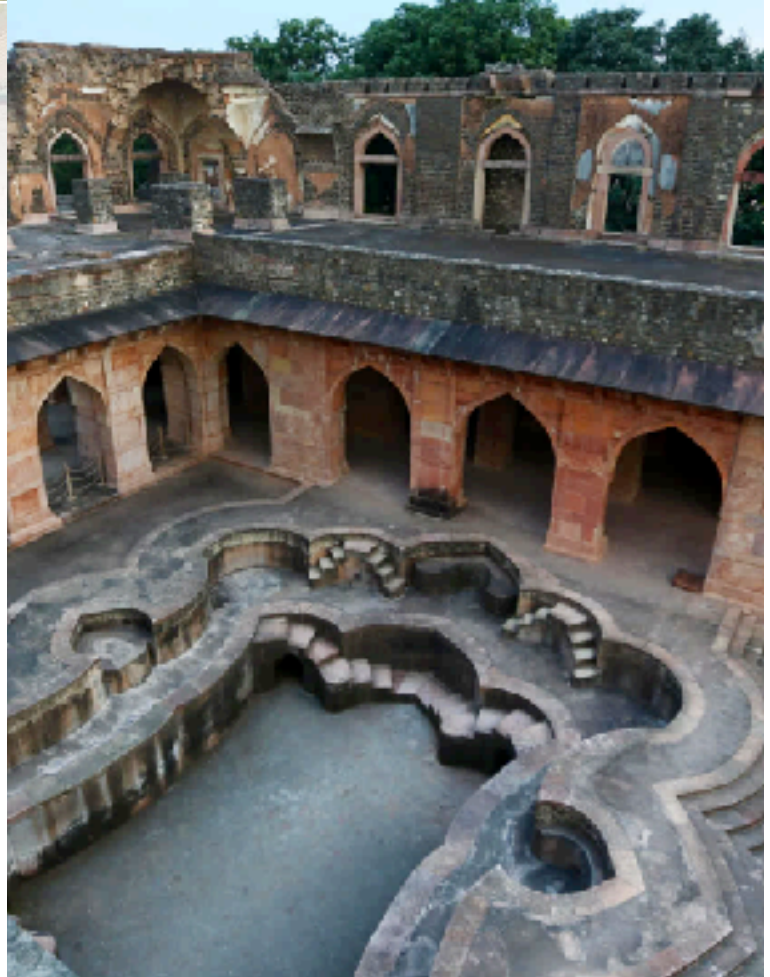

Well it is not mandatory that you have to perform circumambulation here at the Stupa but that's the only way you can see the entire stupa. Apart from all the places in Madhya Pradesh, Sanchi has a special recognition. This place speaks not only about history but also about rich architecture and incredible peace. Crowning a hill top Sanchi Stupa is accompanied by other small size stupas, monasteries and temples, making one of the best sightseeing places in Madhya Pradesh. Bearing many evidences of the existence Ashoka the Great, Sanchi Stupa is one of the most majestic structures that one can witness in the state.

Witness Exquisite Architecture at Mandu

After staying away from the eyes of the tourists for so long Mandu in Madhya Pradesh was almost forgotten till exploration of offbeat destinations began. And the result is as expected; Mandu has nailed it as a famous tourist destination in Madhya Pradesh.

The temple has been designated as a Monument of National Importance by the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI).

GENERAL INFORMATION

Welcome to Madhya Pradesh

Madhya Pradesh, a large state in central India, retains landmarks from eras throughout India history. Begun in the 10th century, it's Hindu and Jain temples at Khajuraho are renowned for their carvings of erotic scenes, most prominently Kandariya Mahadeva, a temple with more than 800 sculptures. The eastern Bandhavgarh and Kanha national parks, noted Bengal tiger sanctuaries, offer guided safaris.

Arts & Architecture

Ancient temples, fortresses, and cave works reflect the rich history of Madhya Pradesh. In the foothills of the Vindhya Range, prehistoric paintings dating from roughly 10,000 bce adorn the walls of the Bhimbetka rock shelters (designated a UNESCO World Heritage site in 2003).

In west-central Madhya Pradesh, one of the state's oldest historical monuments is the stupa (Buddhist mound forming a memorial shrine) at Sanchi, near Vidisha. Originally constructed by Ashoka, emperor of India from about 265 to 238 bce, the stupa was expanded by the Shunga kings, who ruled the area during the 2nd and 1st centuries bce.

Climate

The climate in Madhya Pradesh is governed by a monsoon weather pattern. The distinct seasons are summer (March through May), winter (November through February), and the intervening rainy months of the southwest monsoon (June through September). The summer is hot, dry, and windy.

People

About one-fifth of the people in Madhya Pradesh are officially classified as members of Scheduled Tribes (a category embracing indigenous peoples who fall outside the predominant Indian social hierarchy).

Among the most prominent of these tribes are the Bhil, Baiga, Gond, Korku, Kol, Kamar, and Maria. Non-Scheduled peoples, who hold a higher status within the Indian social system, make up most of the remaining four-fifths of the state's population.

Language

Hindi, the official state language, is also the language most widely spoken in Madhya Pradesh. Eastern Hindi dialects, represented by Bagheli and Awadhi, are spoken in the southern and eastern parts of the state and in the upper Narmada River valley.

Bundeli, a Western Hindi dialect, is spoken in the central and northwestern districts of Madhya Pradesh; Malvi, recognized by some as a Western Hindi dialect as well, is the speech of western Madhya Pradesh.
